Q-4 Read the following passage carefully and answer the question given below it: (14)

Cheating in examinations is a major defect of our educational system. The cheating has become so common that students consider it their birthright to use unfair means in the examination. The root cause of this evil lies in our schools. Short-cuts have replaced hard labour. Guides and notes are encouraged in place of textbooks. In all schools, exams except Board exams, teachers show mercy to students and pass most of them. Sometimes even the parents are at fault. They get their undeserving wards promoted to higher class.

Questions:

1. What is the major defect of our educational system?
2. What do students feel about using unfair means in examinations?
3. What is used in place of textbooks?
4. Why do teachers encourage the students to use unfair means?
5. What have replaced hard labour?
6. Give opposites of: (a) fair (b) deserving
7. Give similar words of: (a) motivated (b) weakness

Q-4 Read the following passage carefully and answer the question given below it: (14)

Gandhiji's satyagraha inspired freedom fighters all over the world. His American Negro disciple, Martin Luther King carried on black men's struggle against the whites in the way of Gandhiji. He too fell to a murderer's bullet. To Indians, Gandhiji taught how a person should give himself. Body and soul, to the service of truth and goodness. As Jawaharlal Nehru said. "The only fit memorial for him is to follow the path he showed us and do our duty in life and death."

Questions:

1. What inspired freedom fighters all over the world?
2. Find out the similar for 'follower'.
3. Who carried on black men's struggle against the whites in America?
4. How was Martin dead?
5. Whom is this paragraph for?
